Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Some of you may have heard that we plan to resume our Communion worship schedule, offering Lord's Supper in the services for the second and last Sunday of each month. Because of a scheduling issue, we will begin offering Communion for the services of July 23 & 26. We are leaving the character of the three services as is —“blended” on Thursdays, “mask only” for Sunday early, and “no masks” for Sunday late. Below are a few details about what to expect for the distribution of Lord's Supper.

HOLY COMMUNION:

We will do our best to observe social distancing guidelines and other “norms” that our society has been using for safety. Therefore, we will not have direct contact with those administering Lord's Supper, we will not be offering the Common Cup, and we will distribute Lord's Supper in a “Continuous Flow” format.

All communicants are asked to approach the table from the center aisle at the direction of our usher. We will approach in a line, closer in family groups, but maintaining six feet distance with those in our family whether in line or while communing (A reminder that pews are three feet apart, so no matter where you are in the aisle you should be able to approximate a safe distance.).

The communion wafers will be in small paper “cups.” Please grab the edge of the paper cup and then grab and eat your wafer. For the paper, there will be a small waste basket as you near the wine. The wine will be spaced in the individual cup trays on the side that you were sitting. (Pastor will be near the front to direct communicants and say words of distribution.) After drinking the wine, you may proceed to the empty cup receptacle and then to your seat from the outside of your row. (If someone in your row did not commune, please do not “climb” over them. Rather use the empty pew near your pew or go to the back of church and access your pew from the center aisle.)

When we switch over to those sitting on the font side, there will be a slight pause as we move the wine vessels to that side of the sanctuary. When all have communed, Pastor will say the final blessing to the entire congregation, and we will continue with conclusion of the service.

This may feel complicated as we imagine it and begin, but I believe this will become comfortable (and perhaps easier) very quickly. I pray that our excitement and joy in returning to the Lord's Table will be able to outweigh the minor changes in our customs at this time. These “sacrifices” do not change the efficacy of the sacrament and allow us to resume Communion in a safe manner during these continued times of concern. Thank you for your patience and understanding!

All of our previous precautionary guidelines for public worship remain in place. So also, we will continue to offer opportunities to participate in worship from home. We realize some of our members may choose to remain at home but are interested in receiving Lord's Supper. Please contact the office to arrange private communion at church or for a visitor to bring Lord's Supper to you at your home. You all remain in my thoughts and prayers!

Blessings,

Pastor Darin Aden
