UPON ENTERING GOD'S HOUSE

Tenebrae, which means darkness, lends its name to this service. The Tenebrae service is a traditional service of the Christian Church used during Holy Week to impress upon the minds and hearts of believers the awful consequence of sin and the magnitude of the Savior's sacrifice. The candles are slowly extinguished and the sanctuary lights are dimmed, reminding us of the darkness that came over the earth from noon until 3 p.m. while Jesus hung on the cross. The seven candles represent Jesus, the Light of the world. The church is gradually darkened to portray Jesus coming closer and closer to death.

One last vigil candle will remain lit to indicate that death only seems triumphant over Christ. It will be removed to symbolize Jesus' death and burial.

Before the service begins tonight, you are invited to come to the front of the church to light your own candle. These small tea candles that are lit from the Christ Candle, will symbolize our faith that comes from Christ and the life that we have only from him. Our candles are not extinguished, because Jesus' life was given in our place. We may die, but our lives will not end. Our lives will go on eternally. Jesus promised it: "Because I live, you also will live." So before the service begins, you are invited to go to the front of the church to light a candle. In faith, remember that it was your sin that Jesus paid for on the cross. In faith, remember that it was your victory Jesus won, when he defeated death. Leave today, in faith with the sure hope that "whoever believes in him will not perish but have eternal life."

The light of Christ will emerge from the tomb on Easter morning. We look forward to celebrating his victory over death at our Easter services this Sunday!

CONFESSION OF SINS PRAYER

M We pray in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

M Heavenly Father, you are a just God who accepts nothing less than perfection. All too often we fail to realize how our sins offend you. We forget that the wages of sin truly is death. We forget that there actually is a hell. Lead us to recognize the seriousness of our sinfulness. Lead us also to admit our inability to make things right with you.

C Lord, we have fallen short and sinned against you in thought, word, and deed. Please, forgive us for Jesus' sake.

M Today may we be reminded not only of your justice but also of your love. You did not spare your own Son but gave him as a ransom for each one of us. Comfort us with the knowledge of this great love. Give us the peace that the forgiveness of sins brings.

C When we feel our guilt, point us to the cross where our guilt was washed away in Jesus' blood.

M Lord Jesus, we thank you for paying the debt we could not pay. We thank you for coming to earth so that we could be with you forever in heaven.

C For being our perfect substitute, we thank you, Lord Jesus.

M Son of God, you offered up your body as an unblemished sacrifice for sin and commended your spirit into the hands of the Father. Teach us to cast the cares of this brief life on our heavenly Father and commit our bodies and souls to his love.

C Grant us courage to face all that comes in life, including death. Give us confidence in knowing this is how you lead us to heaven.

M Holy Spirit, hear us now as we offer our personal thoughts and concerns in silent prayer. Help us in our weakness and intercede for us when we are unable to give words to the thoughts and feelings of our hearts.

(Silent prayer.)

M The cross was once an instrument of torture and death. It is now a sign of love and life.

C Dear Savior, we humbly come before you to kneel at the cross in awe of your power and love. Amen.

M In the peace of forgiveness, let us praise the Lord.

C Verse 1 ♪ When I survey the wondrous cross
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss
And pour contempt on all my pride.

C Verse 2 ♪ See from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down.
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

PRAYER OF THE DAY

M God most holy, look with mercy on this group of worshipers gathered in faith for whom our Lord Jesus Christ was willing to be betrayed, be given over into the hands of the wicked, and suffer death upon the cross. Keep us always faithful to him, our only Savior, who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

Old Testament Lesson

Psalm 22

<sup>1</sup> My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from saving me, so far from my cries of anguish? <sup>2</sup> My God, I cry out by day, but you do not answer, by night, but I find no rest.

<sup>3</sup> Yet you are enthroned as the Holy One; you are the one Israel praises. <sup>4</sup> In you our ancestors put their trust; they trusted and you delivered them. <sup>5</sup> To you they cried out and were saved; in you they trusted and were not put to shame.

<sup>6</sup> But I am a worm and not a man, scorned by everyone, despised by the people. <sup>7</sup> All who see me mock me; they hurl insults, shaking their heads. <sup>8</sup> “He trusts in the LORD,” they say, “let the LORD rescue him. Let him deliver him, since he delights in him.”

<sup>9</sup> Yet you brought me out of the womb; you made me trust in you, even at my mother's breast.

<sup>10</sup> From birth I was cast on you; from my mother's womb you have been my God.

<sup>11</sup> Do not be far from me, for trouble is near and there is no one to help.

<sup>12</sup> Many bulls surround me; strong bulls of Bashan encircle me. <sup>13</sup> Roaring lions that tear their prey open their mouths wide against me. <sup>14</sup> I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint. My heart has turned to wax; it has melted within me. <sup>15</sup> My mouth is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth; you lay me in the dust of death.

<sup>16</sup> Dogs surround me, a pack of villains encircles me; they pierce my hands and my feet. <sup>17</sup> All my bones are on display; people stare and gloat over me. <sup>18</sup> They divide my clothes among them and cast lots for my garment.

<sup>19</sup> But you, LORD, do not be far from me. You are my strength; come quickly to help me.

<sup>20</sup> Deliver me from the sword, my precious life from the power of the dogs. <sup>21</sup> Rescue me from the mouth of the lions; save me from the horns of the wild oxen.

<sup>22</sup> I will declare your name to my people; in the assembly I will praise you. <sup>23</sup> You who fear the LORD, praise him! All you descendants of Jacob, honor him! Revere him, all you descendants of Israel! <sup>24</sup> For he has not despised or scorned the suffering of the afflicted one; he has not hidden his face from him but has listened to his cry for help.

<sup>25</sup> From you comes the theme of my praise in the great assembly; before those who fear you I will fulfill my vows. <sup>26</sup> The poor will eat and be satisfied; those who seek the LORD will praise him— may your hearts live forever!

<sup>27</sup> All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the LORD, and all the families of the nations will bow down before him, <sup>28</sup> for dominion belongs to the LORD and he rules over the nations. <sup>29</sup> All the rich of the earth will feast and worship; all who go down to the dust will kneel before him— those who cannot keep themselves alive. <sup>30</sup> Posterity will serve him; future generations will be told about the Lord. <sup>31</sup> They will proclaim his righteousness, declaring to a people yet unborn: He has done it!

© I believe that Jesus Christ, true God, begotten of the Father from eternity, and also true man, born of the virgin Mary, is my Lord. He has redeemed me, a lost and condemned creature, purchased and won me from all sins, from death, and from the power of the devil, not with gold or silver but with his holy, precious blood and with his innocent suffering and death. And this he did that I should be his own, and live under him in his kingdom, and serve him in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness, just as he has risen from death and lives and rules eternally. This is most certainly true.

Epistle Lesson

Hebrews 9:11-15

<sup>11</sup> But when Christ came as high priest of the good things that are now already here, he went through the greater and more perfect tabernacle that is not made with human hands, that is to say, is not a part of this creation. <sup>12</sup> He did not enter by means of the blood of goats and calves; but he entered the Most Holy Place once for all by his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption. <sup>13</sup> The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer sprinkled on those who are ceremonially unclean sanctify them so that they are outwardly clean. <sup>14</sup> How much more, then, will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from acts that lead to death, so that we may serve the living God!

<sup>15</sup> For this reason Christ is the mediator of a new covenant, that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance—now that he has died as a ransom to set them free from the sins committed under the first covenant.

THE SACRAMENT

Our Lord Jesus has given us a holy supper in which we receive his true body and blood for the forgiveness of sins and the strengthening of our faith. In this supper we celebrate the gift of his redemption, we bear witness to the fellowship as believers, and we proclaim his death until he returns. As we celebrate the Lord's Supper, St. Johh-St. James members are asked to register with the ushers before or after the service.

Guests and visitors wishing to commune with us for the first time are asked to speak with our pastor prior to the start of the worship service. We make this request out of a love for our Savior's teaching concerning the Lord's Supper (I Corinthians 10,11), and out of love for our guests, seeking only their spiritual good and blessing. We humbly ask for your respectful cooperation. May the Lord bless each of our communicants today with peace-filled hearts and a renewed spirit to serve and love their Lord Jesus.

LORD'S PRAYER

C Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

PREFACE and WORDS OF INSTITUTION

M Within the family of the Church, God never wearies of giving peace and new life. In the absolution, we receive the forgiveness as from God himself. This absolution we should not doubt but firmly believe that our sins are thus forgiven before God in heaven, for it comes to us in the name and by the command of our Lord.

In Holy Communion we are not more forgiven, but we are drawn closer to our God and we have a further assurance that our sins have been forgiven. God's people participate in an intimate communion with their God in the Lord's Supper, and through it God promises to bestow blessings upon us. So also those who commune together participate in a communion with one another sharing in a common loaf and a common faith. This union with God and one another is the promise of the great banquet we will share with all the faithful when our Lord returns, the joyous culmination of our reconciliation with God the peace we share. Thus, we remember...

M Our Lord, Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." Then he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them saying, "Drink from it, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

C Amen.

A PRAYER BEFORE COMMUNION

Heavenly Father, we confess our many sins, trusting that Jesus Christ, your Son, has fully atoned for them all. We humbly seek your grace and blessings in this sacrament. Use it to comfort our hearts and give us peace. Make our penitence ever genuine and our faith ever true, that strengthened by this means of grace we may turn from our sins and trust in our Savior. It's in His name we ask. Amen.

DISTRIBUTION OF HOLY COMMUNION

(After all those communing have received Lord's Supper, we conclude our celebration: )

M Now may this true body and blood of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ strengthen and preserve you in the true faith unto life everlasting.

C Amen.

THANKSGIVING

M Heavenly Father, we have received from your Son his body once offered, now given in bread; his blood once shed, now given in wine. Reassure us of your love and forgiveness through this means of grace, so that we may be comforted in our guilt, strengthened in our faith and affirmed in our hope that only comes through Jesus Christ, who died and was buried, but also rose and now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
