CHRIST CANDLE

At the end of Good Friday, the Christ candle was removed signifying his burial. The Christ candle has now returned to the Sanctuary for Christ will not be found in the tomb. He is not there; He has risen just as he said. Now He dwells among his believers!

OPENING PRAYER

M Alleluia! Christ is risen!

C He is risen, indeed! Alleluia!

M “Christ has indeed been raised from the dead.” (1 Corinthians 15:20,22)

C “For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive.”
(1 Corinthians 15:22)

M “Through the Spirit of holiness, Jesus Christ our Lord was declared with power to be the Son of God by his resurrection from the dead.”
(Romans 1:4)

C “For we know that since Christ was raised from the dead, he cannot die again; death no longer has mastery over him.”
(Romans 6:9)

M “This is the day the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad in it.”
(Psalm 118:24)

C “Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good. His love endures forever.”
(Psalm 118:29)

M Heavenly Father, for our redemption you gave your only Son to suffer death on a cross, and by His glorious resurrection you delivered us from the power of death. Help us today to celebrate Your love for all the world in sending your Son Jesus to conquer death and open heaven.

C Lord Jesus, we gather in your name. As you opened the Scriptures to your disciples that first Easter, so open them to us. Bless our worship with the comfort of your presence and promises. Amen.

CONFESSION OF SINS

M Even on such a joyful day, when we, sinful people, come into God's holy presence there is always that nagging reality that we have fallen short of God's holy will. Trusting in Jesus, let us go to God in repentance to seek the assurance of His love and forgiveness.

C Most gracious heavenly Father, we come with the burden of our sins for which your Son died. We are ashamed of our sinful thoughts, words, and deeds. In humble repentance, we ask for your mercy. For the sake of your Son's death and resurrection, forgive us, renew us, and lead us to enjoy the new life you have promised. Amen.

M On this most holy day, on which our Savior conquered death and the grave, as a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by the authority he granted on that first Easter, I joyfully assure you that all of your sins have indeed been forgiven in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C "Thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!" Amen. (1 Corinthians 15)

M In the peace of forgiveness, let us praise the Lord:

C Verse 1

♪ He's risen, he's risen, Christ Jesus, the Lord;
He opened death's prison, the incarnate Word.
Break forth, hosts of heaven, in jubilant song
And earth, sea, and mountain the praises prolong.

C Verse 4

♪ Oh, where is your sting, death? We fear you no more;
Christ rose, and now open is fair Eden's door.
For all our transgressions his blood does atone;
Redeemed and forgiven, we now are his own.

(CW, Hymn #445)

PRAYER OF THE DAY

M Almighty God, by the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ you conquered death and opened the gate to eternal life. Grant that we, who have been raised with him through baptism, may walk in newness of life and ever rejoice in the hope of sharing his glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit be dominion and praise now and forever.

C Amen.

Epistle Lesson

Revelation 5:1-14

5 Then I saw in the right hand of him who sat on the throne a scroll with writing on both sides and sealed with seven seals. 2 And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming in a loud voice, “Who is worthy to break the seals and open the scroll?” 3 But no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth could open the scroll or even look inside it. 4 I wept and wept because no one was found who was worthy to open the scroll or look inside. 5 Then one of the elders said to me, “Do not weep! See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has triumphed. He is able to open the scroll and its seven seals.” 6 Then I saw a Lamb, looking as if it had been slain, standing at the center of the throne, encircled by the four living creatures and the elders. The Lamb had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits<sup>[a]</sup> of God sent out into all the earth. 7 He went and took the scroll from the right hand of him who sat on the throne. 8 And when he had taken it, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb. Each one had a harp and they were holding golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of God’s people. 9 And they sang a new song, saying: “You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, because you were slain, and with your blood you purchased for God persons from every tribe and language and people and nation. 10 You have made them to be a kingdom and priests to serve our God, and they will reign on the earth.” 11 Then I looked and heard the voice of many angels, numbering thousands upon thousands, and ten thousand times ten thousand. They encircled the throne and the living creatures and the elders. 12 In a loud voice they were saying: “Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise!” 13 Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and on the sea, and all that is in them, saying: “To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be praise and honor and glory and power, for ever and ever!” 14 The four living creatures said, “Amen,” and the elders fell down and worshiped.

Gospel Lesson

Matthew 28:1-15

28 After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb.

<sup>2</sup>There was a violent earthquake, for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven and, going to the tomb, rolled back the stone and sat on it. <sup>3</sup>His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow. <sup>4</sup>The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men.

<sup>5</sup>The angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. <sup>6</sup>He is not here; he has risen, just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. <sup>7</sup>Then go quickly and tell his disciples: 'He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him.' Now I have told you."

<sup>8</sup>So the women hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and ran to tell his disciples. <sup>9</sup>Suddenly Jesus met them. "Greetings," he said. They came to him, clasped his feet and worshiped him. <sup>10</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me."

<sup>11</sup> While the women were on their way, some of the guards went into the city and reported to the chief priests everything that had happened.

<sup>12</sup> When the chief priests had met with the elders and devised a plan, they gave the soldiers a large sum of money, <sup>13</sup> telling them, “You are to say, ‘His disciples came during the night and stole him away while we were asleep.’

<sup>14</sup> If this report gets to the governor, we will satisfy him and keep you out of trouble.” <sup>15</sup> So the soldiers took the money and did as they were instructed. And this story has been widely circulated among the Jews to this very day.
