AS WE GATHER

Dear Father in heaven, often we become discouraged by the hardships and heartaches we experience. In this next hour we pray that you are honored and we are blessed through the Word and song we proclaim. May Your Holy Spirit ever live in our hearts, that we may be empowered by Your presence, enlightened by Your truth, and encouraged by Your love. We ask it in the name of Your Son, Jesus. Amen.

WELCOME

CHALLENGING TRUTHS: Put down what you love; pick up what you loathe.

CONFESSION OF SINS

M LORD, when we come to the world, we find people and ideas that are mostly about serving oneself, where love has grown cold and even the most popular notions ring hollow. We don't find help with the things we cannot control; we don't find comfort for the uneasiness we feel. It is especially troubling that we don't find a solution for our failings and faults. In the world, we only find excuses, rationalizations, and misplaced blame. We cannot find your comfort and peace in the world....

M LORD, when we come to ourselves and we look with honesty, we find that we have fallen short of your expectations for us. We are not the people that we should be. We have sinned—against you and against others—in our thoughts, in our words, and in our actions. We cannot find your comfort and peace within ourselves....

M LORD, it is only when we come to the cross that we find your comfort and peace. For it is there that we find true honesty—not the avoidance of our sin but the answer to our sin. Only there, at the cross, do we find the true cost of all sin and the true payment for it. Only there do we find your forgiveness and grace. And so, LORD, in the quiet of this moment, we now come to you at the cross with the specific sins that are on our hearts in silent prayer....

(We offer our private prayers of repentance to the LORD in silent prayer.)

(We will join together in song on the next page to finish our prayer.)

M

God’s Word brings comfort to us with the cross. On the cross, Jesus died and paid the full price for our sins. On the cross Jesus assured us that the war to win our forgiveness was finished. Leaving the cross and living again, Jesus assured us that we will live with him in heaven because of his victory on the cross. These gifts—forgiveness, life, and salvation—they are God’s free gifts to us through faith in our Savior. These gifts cannot be found anywhere else, and they come to us in no other way than by God’s grace. May the peace of God’s forgiveness comfort you today and always through faith in him alone.

C

Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

M O merciful Lord, you did not spare your only Son but delivered him up for us all. Grant us courage and strength to take up the cross and follow him, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

Old Testament Lesson

Deuteronomy 30:15-20

¹⁵See, I set before you today life and prosperity, death and destruction. ¹⁶For I command you today to love the LORD your God, to walk in obedience to him, and to keep his commands, decrees and laws; then you will live and increase, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land you are entering to possess.

¹⁷But if your heart turns away and you are not obedient, and if you are drawn away to bow down to other gods and worship them, ¹⁸I declare to you this day that you will certainly be destroyed. You will not live long in the land you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess.

¹⁹This day I call the heavens and the earth as witnesses against you that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Now choose life, so that you and your children may live ²⁰and that you may love the LORD your God, listen to his voice, and hold fast to him. For the LORD is your life, and he will give you many years in the land he swore to give to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

- ☐ I believe in God the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth.
- I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty. From there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
- I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Epistle Lesson

Philemon 1,7-21

¹Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother,
To Philemon our dear friend and fellow worker—

⁷Your love has given me great joy and encouragement, because you, brother, have refreshed the hearts of the Lord's people.

⁸Therefore, although in Christ I could be bold and order you to do what you ought to do, ⁹yet I prefer to appeal to you on the basis of love. It is as none other than Paul—an old man and now also a prisoner of Christ Jesus— ¹⁰that I appeal to you for my son Onesimus, who became my son while I was in chains. ¹¹Formerly he was useless to you, but now he has become useful both to you and to me.

¹²I am sending him—who is my very heart—back to you. ¹³I would have liked to keep him with me so that he could take your place in helping me while I am in chains for the gospel. ¹⁴But I did not want to do anything without your consent, so that any favor you do would not seem forced but would be voluntary. ¹⁵Perhaps the reason he was separated from you for a little while was that you might have him back forever— ¹⁶no longer as a slave, but better than a slave, as a dear brother. He is very dear to me but even dearer to you, both as a fellow man and as a brother in the Lord.

¹⁷So if you consider me a partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. ¹⁸If he has done you any wrong or owes you anything, charge it to me. ¹⁹I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand. I will pay it back—not to mention that you owe me your very self. ²⁰I do wish, brother, that I may have some benefit from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in Christ.

²¹Confident of your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than I ask.

Luke 14:25-35

“Can You Afford the Cost?”

²⁵Large crowds were traveling with Jesus, and turning to them he said: ²⁶“If anyone comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters—yes, even their own life—such a person cannot be my disciple. ²⁷And whoever does not carry their cross and follow me cannot be my disciple.

²⁸“Suppose one of you wants to build a tower. Won’t you first sit down and estimate the cost to see if you have enough money to complete it? ²⁹For if you lay the foundation and are not able to finish it, everyone who sees it will ridicule you, ³⁰saying, ‘This person began to build and wasn’t able to finish.’

³¹“Or suppose a king is about to go to war against another king. Won’t he first sit down and consider whether he is able with ten thousand men to oppose the one coming against him with twenty thousand? ³²If he is not able, he will send a delegation while the other is still a long way off and will ask for terms of peace. ³³In the same way, those of you who do not give up everything you have cannot be my disciples.

³⁴“Salt is good, but if it loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? ³⁵It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile; it is thrown out.

“Whoever has ears to hear, let them hear.”

PRAYER OF THE CHURCH

- M O Lord God, heavenly Father, we praise and glorify you for the unsurpassed gift of your Son, Jesus Christ. We confess that we are unworthy sinners who have transgressed your will and Word.
- C We repent of our evil and pray for the faith that trusts utterly and completely in the righteousness of Christ Jesus for forgiveness and for life.
- M Keep us mindful of the privilege and faithful to the practice of prayer.
- C Teach us to depend on you for spiritual strength and life.
- M Grant that our minds may be renewed in righteousness, that our consciences may be stirred to choose the good, and that every thought, word, and deed may be brought into captivity to Christ.
- C Give to your Church ministers and teachers who have the faithfulness and courage of true prophets, that your people may be built up in faith, abound in good works, rejoice in your love, and finally enter heaven and a perfect life.
- M For all who are in any sickness, pain, anguish, or suffering, for all who are in any danger of body or soul, we pray. (Special intercessions may be offered here.) Teach your people in all circumstances to turn to you and to wait on you for mercy. Grant them hope and a joyous deliverance from whatever challenges they may face in this life.
- C We pray in the name of Jesus Christ, who taught us to pray:
- C Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

BLESSING

- M The Lord bless you and keep you.
The Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you.
The Lord look on you with favor and give you peace.

C Amen.

Closing Hymn:

Oh, That the Lord Would Guide My Ways

Christian Worship, Hymn # 705
